Review 2019 -Go 2020!

Hello!

We're at the end of the year and even the decade! It's a perfect time to take stock, review what worked and what didn't and really be honest about how your year has gone.

We're going to be looking at your pivotal success moments, the things that you tried that didn't work and what you can learn from them, products that flew off the shelves and things that just sat there.

Then we're going to be setting some goals for 2020.

Please take the time to print this off - apparently, when you write down your goals you are 42% more likely to achieve them!

The more vividly you describe and picture them the more likely they are to happen.

So I'm inviting you to spend this Christmas break dreaming and writing down what you want for 2020. And most importantly how it would make you feel.

Let's get started!!!

#IndieFreedomSeekers Review 2019

I want you to get your calendars out and scan through picking out the best moments from each month - every month has to have at least one, so month might have 3!

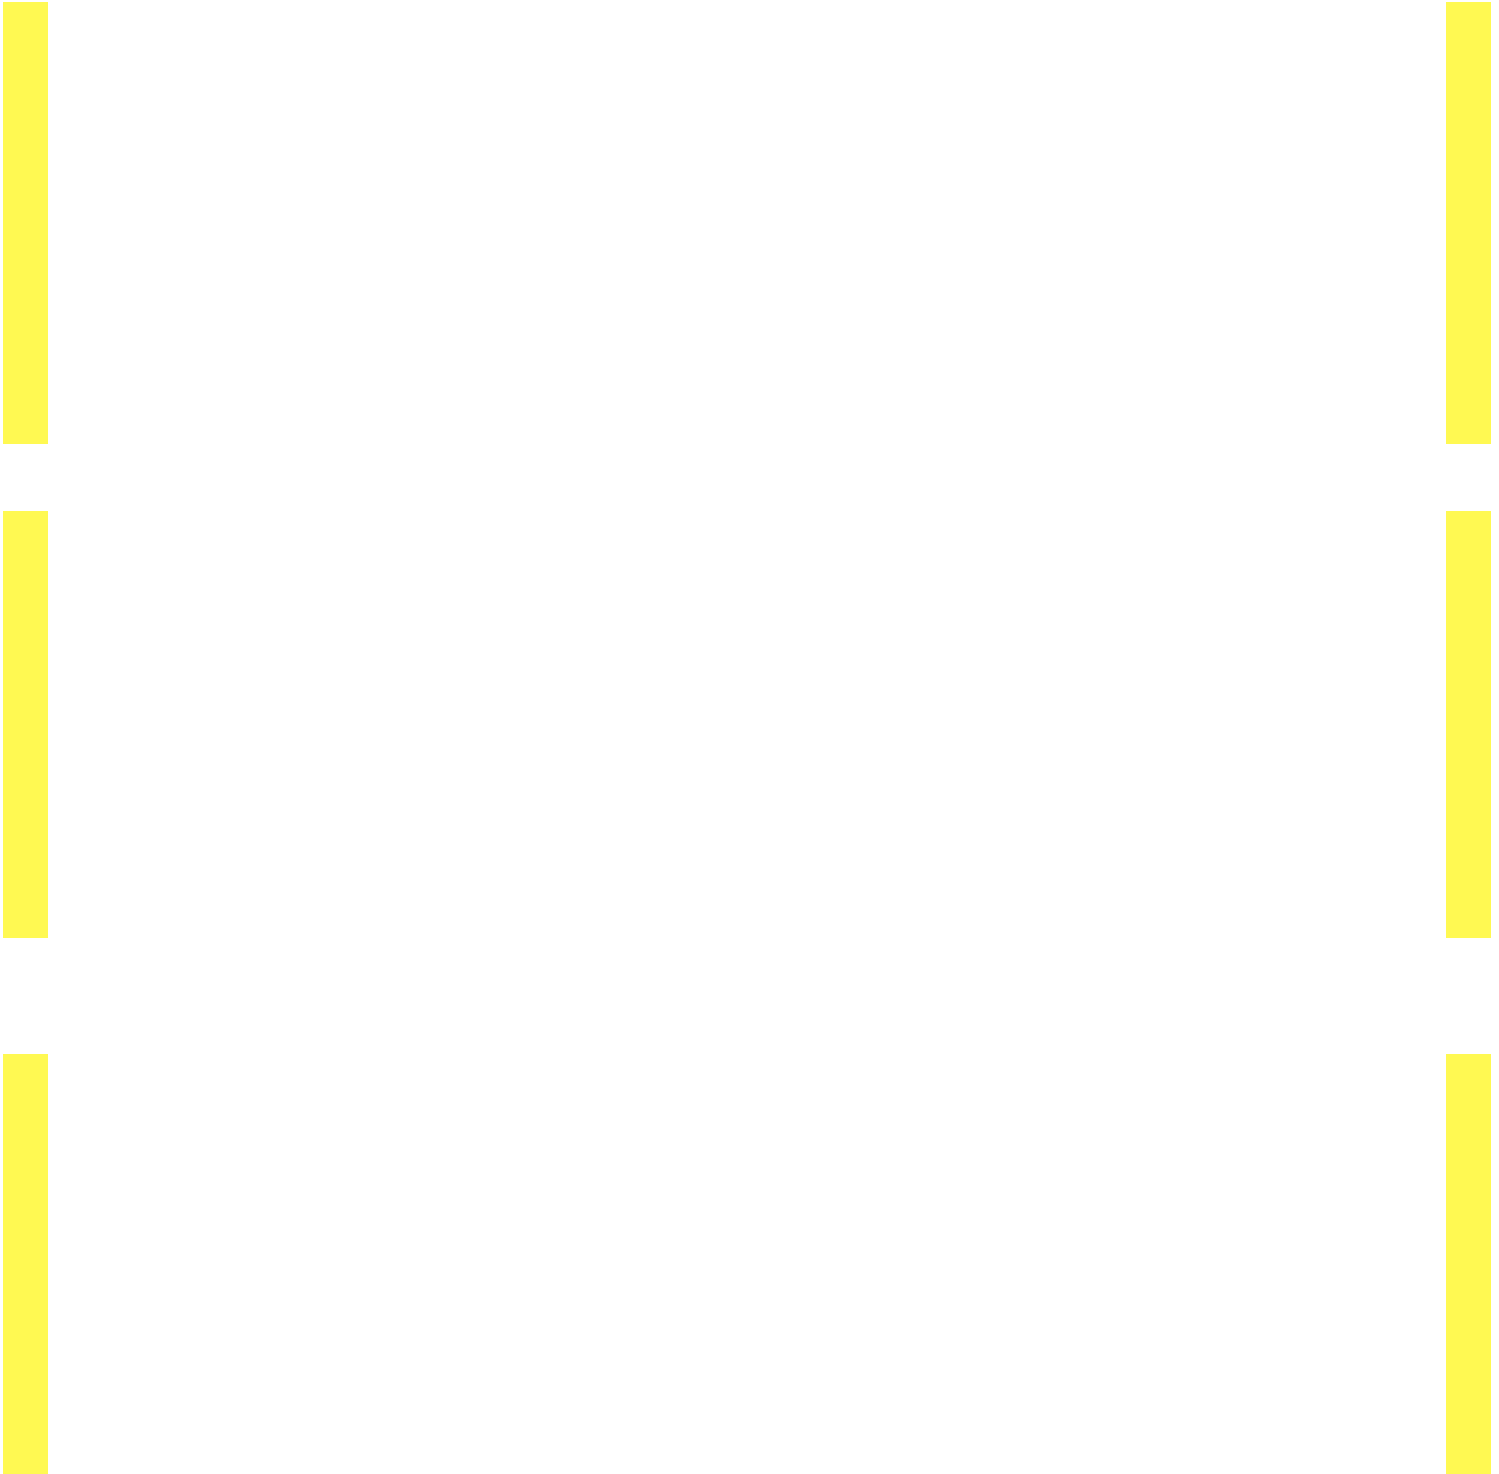

January - June
